

Audrea Taylor's Bio

Audrea is the Founder and president of im2moro. She has spoken to over 100,000 people at numerous events, published hundreds of on-line blogs and produced videos reaching over 3 million views. She also launched national get-out-the-vote campaigns on college campuses across the US in 2012, and in 2016 partnering with My Faith Votes. Audrea has worked directly for some of the nation's leading influencers, including Glenn Beck, where she led special projects, launched his national Action website, co-wrote and produced, "What Now," a video series seen on GlennBeck.com and TheBlaze and guest spoke with him at Never Again is Now rally in Birmingham, Alabama. She recently worked with Dinesh D'Souza in the production and promotion of his latest film, "Hillary's America," and assisted Dr. Jim Garlow in the writing of, "Well Versed," published by Regnery. Currently, Audrea produces social media videos for David Barton that have reached millions of views. Audrea grew up in San Diego and now lives in Dallas Texas. She has a passion to see her generation discover, embrace and advance a biblical worldview.